

Let's discuss a little the movie and the characters!

Barbie has been around since 1959. Why do you think Barbie has managed to stay relevant over so many decades?

What did you think of the Barbie movie's portrayal of Barbie's world and her journey?

Barbie has represented different ideals in different parts of the world. How do you think Barbie's impact might vary from country to country?

How has Barbie's image changed over the years to reflect shifts in society and ideals of beauty?

How does the concept of a "perfect" or "ideal" image in toys like Barbie compare to the images we see in social media today?

How are stereotypes about beauty and gender roles portrayed in the movie?

How does the movie handle the theme of self-discovery?

What role does Ken play in Barbie's world in the movie? How does his role contrast with Barbie's?

If you could redesign Barbie to better reflect today's society, what changes would you make?

